Academy for Community Leadership

The Academy for Community Leadership classes are designed to help individuals make a difference on their boards and in their community.

Course material is based on the book, “The Board Members Guide,” which-- in more than 20 chapters and 100 pages-- highlights:

- The Individual and the Board

- The Work of the Board

- Leadership of the Board

- The Board and the Community

The book was authored by five community leaders in Darke, Miami and Shelby counties. They are Dr. Richard Adams of Troy, Shirley Magoteaux of Versailles, Virginia Matz of Sidney, Cheryl Stiefel-Francis of Piqua, and Judy Westerheide of Sidney. Patricia Robinson of Troy acted through the Paul G. Duke Foundation to underwrite the Academy.

Lorna Swisher was the facilitator for this year’s academy. She and invited guests offer participants expertise on a variety of topics including the recruitment of board members, institutional budgeting, board evaluation, and community awareness and collaboration.

In Appreciation

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to the Paul G. Duke Foundation and to those individuals who volunteer countless hours facilitating the sessions and to those companies sponsoring candidates and allowing them to take time away from their busy workdays to participate in the program.
