EVALUATION METHODS

Grade Weight:

- ✓ Assignments – 35%
- ✓ Examinations – 65%

Assignments: All assignments and projects are due by the start of the next class time. There are no discussion board assignments currently scheduled in VET-255S. The instructor reserves the right to add assignments not listed in the above course outline.

Examinations: Examinations will be given throughout the class. Exams are listed above in the course outline. The instructor reserves the right to administer unannounced “pop quizzes.” Final exams are comprehensive, and the majority of the final exam will be multiple choice. All exams are timed to mimic the timed nature of the VTNE. Most examinations will be completed in Blackboard. This is done through Respondus with a lockdown browser and will be monitored through a webcam. All Veterinary Technology students are required to achieve an average of 75% or higher score in the “Examinations” category in each VET course in either to receive a C or higher in the class.

Late Submission Policy: In rare cases, a required absence with documentation can be excused by the Program Director. If an absence is excused, work can be completed, and exams can be taken, if this is accomplished the first day the student returns to class. All student work made up with an excused absence is subject to a 20% deduction in score. The instructor may require the student to make an appointment to accomplish the missed assignments. Failure to keep this appointment results in an immediate failing grade on all missed assignments.

POLICY STATEMENTS

Students in the Veterinary Technology program must obtain a “C” or higher in all veterinary technology courses.

Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher through the entirety of the program.

Students must achieve an exam average of 75% or higher in each VET course to remain in the program.

AVMA CVTEA Essential Skills: The majority of courses in the Veterinary Technology Program have either knowledge-based and/or hands-on skills in which each student must be deemed competent. All knowledge-based skills are covered under our Assessments policy (occasionally found in the Projects category), stated above. Hands-on skills scheduled in this class are listed below. If a skill is scheduled during the course, attendance is mandatory. Missing even just one hands-on AVMA CVTEA Essential Skill can result in an overall failing course grade and/or taking a class that has this course as a prerequisite. A comprehensive list is available at:

<https://www.avma.org/ProfessionalDevelopment/Education/Accreditation/Programs/Pages/cvtea-pp-appendix-i.aspx>

- ✓ All hands-on essential skills regarding dentistry will be completed in VET 285S Small Animal Nursing Clinical.

Dress Code: Scheduled labs (includes any classroom time working with any animals or biological specimens), field trips where the student will be working with animals, and during clinic rotations and internships, VET students are required to meet a strict dress code. If the dress code below is not met, the student may be asked to leave until they are able to return in the proper attire. This could result in missing essential skills. See the above policy regarding missed essential skills.

- ✓ Closed-toed and closed-heeled shoes (sneakers or orthopedic clogs recommended or weatherproof boots recommended for large animal sites)
- ✓ Scrubs
 - Clean and neatly pressed, not faded, discolored or ripped, nor “see through”
 - Scrub pants must be of a length to cover the ankle but must not touch the floor to prevent contamination and promote infection control.
 - A long-sleeved scrub jacket must be worn when working with animals or lab specimens.
- ✓ Long hair will need to be pulled back and secured
- ✓ Fingernails
 - Should be kept as short as possible for personal safety, hygiene, and dexterity
 - No acrylic nails permitted
 - If painted, freshly painted with no chips required. Clear or neutral colors recommended.
 - Exception: when assisting in surgery, no nail lacquer is permitted
- ✓ Minimal jewelry. Loose jewelry, such as hooped or dangling earrings, necklaces, and bracelets are prohibited. NOTE: Prior to participating in a surgical procedure, you may be asked to remove all jewelry.
- ✓ Avoid wearing strong perfume/cologne
- ✓ Avoid chewing gum
- ✓ Watch, with a second hand (may need to be removed depending on the procedure), a functional pen and a stethoscope should be readily available
- ✓ Clinic rotations and internships may have additional dress code requirements.

AI Restrictive Policy: Students cannot use AI tools such as ChatGPT on assignments in this course. All assignments should be prepared entirely by the student. Developing strong competencies in this area will prepare you for a competitive workplace. Therefore, AI-generated submissions are prohibited and will be treated as academic misconduct.

Cell Phones: Cell phone use is not permitted in class. A cell phone is not permitted to be carried on oneself during field trips, clinic rotations, or internships.

Communication: Announcements and emails are available through the Blackboard system. Periodically check your ESCC email for class announcements. If there is an urgent message, announcements will be sent to all students via e-mail. Instructors usually check e-mail daily, Monday through Friday. This is the easiest way to contact them with questions or problems. The instructor will get back to you within 24-48 hours. If they have not responded within 48 hours, please email them again.
