TEXTBOOK

Martini, Fredric H. et.al. Visual Anatomy & Physiology, 3rd Ed. 2018. Pearson Publishing.
Satikas, Stephen N. Visual Anatomy & Physiology, Lab Manual. 2nd Ed. 2018. Pearsons Publishing.

You must purchase the online access code

All dates are subject to change at the discretion of the Instructor.

Makeup tests are highly discouraged and will be the exception, not the norm.

Tests will be given at an announced, predetermined time online. The student will be allowed 1 minute per test question. At the end of the allotted time, uncompleted tests will be automatically submitted. Those questions not answered will be counted wrong.

EXAM INFORMATION

There are 5 lecture exams and 4 lab exams.

Exams can consist of multiple choices, matching, true/false, and short answer type questions. Each lecture exam is worth 100 points and lab tests are 50 points. There is also a cumulative final exam worth 200 points.

Test material will focus on my lectures, online labs/homework, and textbook readings.

BIO 125-- Lecture Schedule

All students will be required to read the text prior to lecture of the material. The instructor reserves the right to give unannounced Quizzes over the assigned readings. The Power Point will only highlight the text and is NOT the only source of exam questions. The following is a tentative schedule for lectures:

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS

The homework assignments are on Pearson's Mastering A&P website. Each homework assignment is unique and requires a different amount of time to complete. They are to be done on the computer and are to be completed in the time frame allotted. Be sure to use your time wisely. Work will be graded and entered into Blackboard at the end of the semester. There are no make-up homework assignments.

LAB BOOK EXERCISES

Lab exercises are designed to allow students another form of learning the concepts learned in lecture. Lab activities are performed on your own and are located in the lab manual that is required for this class. You are not required to turn in lab assignments unless specifically asked to do so. Lab assignments are another opportunity that each student has to interact with the material before the exams.

PARTICIPATION POLICY

Regular usage of recorded lectures is expected of all students. Students must watch recorded lectures to obtain complete information and experience for testing purposes. Students are responsible for staying informed of changes in work assignments or test dates announced during lectures. In order to maximize your learning, please plan to watch and study all of your lectures.

Click on the content tab in our course in Blackboard and go to the category of Edison State Community College Policies & Student Resources for an up to date list of services and statements from Edison State.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Plagiarism is the act of using someone else's words, sentences, or ideas and passing them off as your own without giving credit by citing the original source. If you plagiarize in this course, you will receive a score of zero for that assignment and you will be reported to the dean.

You might be plagiarizing if you:

- Submit someone else's work as your own.
- Buy a paper from a papermill, website or other source.
- Copy and paste lab answers from a papermill, website, or other source.
- Copy sentences, phrases, paragraphs, or ideas from someone else's work, published or unpublished, without giving the original author credit.
- Replace select words from a passage without giving the original author credit.
- Copy any type of multimedia (graphics, audio, video, internet streams), computer programs, music compositions, graphs, or charts from someone else's work without giving the original author credit.
- Piece together phrases, ideas, and sentences from a variety of sources to write an essay.
- Build on someone else's idea or phrase to write your paper without giving the original author credit.
- Submit your own paper in more than one course.

TESTING YOUR FAITH ACT POLICY

Edison State Community College is committed to providing an environment respectful of students' beliefs. Students are permitted to be absent for up to 3 days each semester based on their faith, religion, or spiritual belief system with no academic penalty. Students must complete the Testing Your Faith Act Accommodations Form, <https://www.edisonohio.edu/Registration-and-Records/> and provide a copy to their individual faculty within 14 days from the start of the course. The entire policy can be found in the student handbook at <http://stage.edisonohio.edu/digipub/StudentHandbook/index.html>.
