Homework

- Homework assignments will be due every Sunday at midnight. The homework will always have two parts: 1) questions completed on WebAssign and 2) questions completed by hand on paper.
- WebAssign is an online homework platform. You must purchase access to WebAssign to complete the homework assignments and access the textbook. Follow the setup instructions on WebAssign and use the class key (listed in the Additional Materials of the Course Materials) to enroll in this course.
- Submit a scan/picture of the paper homework to the proper folder in Blackboard. Links to cloud files will not be accepted. If you submit a picture that cannot be viewed, or use illegible handwriting, I will ask you to submit another picture. I will give a grade of 0 until the new picture is received, then I will regrade it for full credit.
- Homework assignments should not be submitted to the instructor's email without prior arrangements.
- Handwritten assignments MUST have supporting work (calculations or explanations) to receive points. Partial credit may be given for correct work with an incorrect answer.
- No late work is accepted. Due date extensions may be granted for extenuating circumstances.
- There will be one lab experiment and a formal lab report. The rubric and instructions for the lab will be given on Blackboard after the third exam.

Exams

- There will be 3 exams throughout the course and a final exam at the end. The exam weeks are posted on the tentative weekly schedule.
- Exams are taken on Blackboard using LockDown browser and a webcam. Follow instructions on Blackboard to install the LockDown browser software.
- Supporting work for each exam may be submitted for partial credit. Supporting work should be neat and organized. A photo or scan of the supporting work should be submitted to the proper folder on Blackboard within 24 hours of exam completion.
- You will be required to prepare for and take each exam before the scheduled deadline. If you have a conflict with the deadline, an adjusted due date must be worked out with the instructor prior to the start of the exam.
