Masters: Intervention Specialist, Wright State University, 2010

Email: kstanley3@edisonohio.edu

Course Description:

HST 126S is a survey of the development of civilization in the West from the eighteenth century to modern times, emphasizing the distinctive characteristics of Western culture; the ideas, individuals, and institutions that shaped it; and the influence of Western culture on the world.

Required Technology:

Computer speakers and access to high speed internet. Students should have two browsers in case one moves slow. It is the student's responsibility to have access to a reliable computer.

Email: Check your ESCC e-mail account frequently for communications about this course. Once a day, Monday through Friday, is the best policy. Emails sent through Blackboard will be located in your Edison email (all students, faculty, and staff are required to use their Edison email account for ALL college communication). Email sent from personal accounts will not be responded to.

Class Policies:

Submitting Work:

No emailed work will be accepted. All assignments must be submitted through Blackboard. Anyone who emails the assignment will not receive credit for not following directions. If help is needed, the student must email the instructor.

To submit papers, click the link "View/Complete Assignment," at the bottom of the assignment. Follow the directions for attaching your paper. When you are ready to submit your work, you must click the "submit" button. Be careful that you do not click on "submit" until you're ready for your paper to be sent. This is an irrevocable step: once you have clicked "submit" you cannot get back the submission

Late Work:

All work should be submitted on time. With the exception of major projects, no late work will be accepted after 48 hours of the assigned deadline. Major projects may be submitted up to one week past the due date with a letter grade penalty. That being said, late work will NOT be accepted after the term has officially ended. I reserve the right to make exceptions due to extreme circumstances at my discretion. *Any extension given for extreme circumstances will require documentation submitted to the instructor.

Academic Integrity:

Because engaging in dishonest practices undermines the trust that is essential in any social relationship, honesty is expected in all matters. Academic honesty requires that you never submit another's work as your own. You will not plagiarize from a printed source, an electronic source, or another student's work, nor will you have someone else do your work. You are plagiarizing if you:

- Submit someone else's work as your own.
- Buy a paper from a papermill, website or other source.
- Copy sentences, phrases, paragraphs, or ideas from someone else's work, published or unpublished, without giving the original author credit. (put in quotation marks and cited to the quote's exact location in a footnote and include a work citation page)
- Replace select words from a passage without giving the original author credit. (changing a few words does not make it your idea)
- Copy any type of multimedia (graphics, audio, video, internet streams), computer programs, music compositions, graphs, or charts from someone else's work without giving the original author credit.
- Piece together phrases, ideas, and sentences from a variety of sources to write an essay. • Build on someone else's idea or phrase to write your paper without giving the original author credit.
- Submit your own paper in more than one course.

Quotes require footnotes and full work citation pages. If you quote and don't have those, you are plagiarizing and will get a zero. Please follow rules and put everything in this class completely in your own words.

Communication:

Please contact me at any time during the semester, with any questions or concerns – I am here to help and typically respond within 24 hours, but am allowed up to 48 hours. All students, faculty, and staff are required to use their Edison email account for ALL college communication. Students have 48 hours to respond to faculty emails per school code.

College is the beginning of being in a professional environment for many people so please include the following when you send an email:

- Subject line... State the course and subject - “HST 125 Inquizitive question” (if you use the “email instructor” through blackboard, just put the subject as the class is automatically added. This method of email is recommended.

- Salutation. Address the recipient by name: “Dear [name]” or “Hello [name]” - Body text. Explain the main message of the email. ...

- Signature. Your email closing should be formal, not informal. (Put your name on it)

- Think before you write. Unlike a traditional class where we can see and speak to each other, an online course does not allow us to use nonverbal cues (facial expressions, tone of voice, gestures). Remarks that might be humorous when spoken can easily be misunderstood when written. Choose your words with care to lessen the chance that you will be misunderstood or misinterpreted.

Testing Your Faith Act Policy:

Edison State Community College is committed to providing an environment respectful of students’ beliefs. Students are permitted to be absent for up to 3 days each semester based on their faith, religion, or spiritual belief system with no academic penalty. Students must complete the Testing Your Faith Act Accommodations Form, <https://www.edisonohio.edu/services-support/registration-records>, located in “Forms” and provide a copy to their individual faculty within 14 days from the start of the course. The entire policy can be found in the student handbook at <https://www.edisonohio.edu/services-support/student-resources>

Technical Support:

For Blackboard issues, the Teacher should be the first point of contact

EVALUATION METHODS:

GETTING STARTED ASSIGNMENTS:

Before students can complete any work in this class. These assignments will go over the basics of online class expectations, the syllabus, plagiarism, what you need to complete the class, as well as an introduction discussion board where students will be required to introduce themselves to the course and professor.

INQUIZITIVES: CHAPTERS:

Students will complete inquisitive assignments online each week over the chapters. Each assignment has a target goal to be met. Students can work to a 100% score on each assignment. To complete them, students must read the chapters first. Then, go through the questions and answer them. The book can be used as the assignment is completed.

CHAPTER QUIZZES:

These will be multiple choice, true and false, and/or matching over the chapter and are closed book. No make-up quizzes will be given nor will quizzes be reset. Be sure to follow the information below. It is also in your best interest to take these quizzes when the help desk is open. To ensure the integrity of the quizzes, student cannot view the missed questions until after the exam has closed.

- Time Limit: The time to be allotted to each examination will be announced in advance of the examination. The exam will automatically submit once you hit the time limit. If for any reason you are kicked off the exam, you should immediately get back on the exam (you may have to log off and back onto blackboard). Your timer starts the moment you hit the “okay” to start button and will continue to count until you hit “submit.” Once you start a quiz, you must finish it.
- Special Note on Time: Blackboard has a three-hour window of accessibility. If you have been logged on to Blackboard for a time, you should take these steps before you start an exam to ensure that you do not exceed the three-hour limit on access: log out; close your browser; open a new browser window; log in to Blackboard again; complete the quiz or examination.

ALL QUIET ON THE WESTERN FRONT JOURNAL:

Students will respond in a journal style format in this class to reflect on the book All Quiet on the Western Front. This assignment serves three purposes. The first is the journaling itself as a source for you to keep your thoughts. Second is connecting society, what we are studying, and your own experiences and thoughts. Third is to react to what you are learning in the book. For each entry, students will answer three questions:

1. A specific question over the chapter (entries below)
2. What do you think the most important thing in this source/chapter was to understanding the time period?
3. What is your reaction to it? (What did you learn, can it connect to today, what did you think?)

Each entry must be 250+ words each - Total Points 250

DISCUSSION BOARD:

The discussion board will be based on a variety of primary sources. With each forum, you are expected to respond to the initial questions as well as interact with classmates in a discussion. Each of these will ask you to take what you are learning in the primary sources and discuss them. When you click on week's list of assignments, the discussion board questions will be listed. Click the title of the discussion board to go it then click add thread to post your work. These require you to really think about the topic and explain your ideas so that everyone reading them can fully understand your ideas. This means if you are only posting a few sentences, you are not discussing the topic. Each discussion board has a required word count length.

HOW TO DO COMMENTS

When commenting on others, although "good job" is great to hear, it is not discussing the topic.

When doing comments, you must:

1. First identify the point the other student made that they will address and summarize their point briefly. (Figure 1-2 sentences.) "You stated that the African Americans did not get to fight much in the war because of the racism that existed in that area during the time."
2. What is your take their points (2 sentences). "I agree with this. One of the most interesting things with this is how the generals seemed to think the color of a person's skin would affect their fighting ability. You'd think the desire to survive would outweigh race."
3. As a question to continue the conversation. (1 sentence) "Do you think that it would have been different if he were fighting in Virginia rather than Georgia?"
4. A comment must be 50+ words in length

IMPORTANT: The initial posting of-the answers must be done by FRIDAY at 11:59pm. The forum for the week closes on SUNDAY at 11:59pm. Comments from students will not be given any points if they do not do their initial journal entry by Friday evening. The subject should always say your name.

It is highly recommended that you first type up yow answers on a word document to ensure you meet the word length requirements as well as ensure nothing happens to it due to internet issues then copy and paste it onto the discussion board. If you type on the board itself and yow internet goes down or you surpass the 3-hour restrictions, your work will be lost. Don't take that chance.

FINAL GRADE STANDARDS

The final grade for the course will represent your instructor's assessment of the overall quality with which you met all the requirements of the course.

Student Wellness Center

College is stressful! Feeling burnt out, anxious, frustrated? When challenges arise, it's helpful to have someone to talk to. We have partnerships established with many local mental health providers and can connect you with area resources.

The Student Wellness Center helps students navigate obstacles which might cause issues or create a sense of distress during your school year. Edison State has built a network of health professionals to support students. With these partnerships, the Student Wellness Center can assist students who need support in areas such as: o Recovery and Counseling referral o Housing o Food o Physical well-being

Information and education are also provided on the topics of:

- o Alcohol and drug abuse and prevention o Sexual assault prevention and awareness
- o Building healthy relationships
- o Inclusion and belonging
- o Survivor support o Self-care
- o Anti-Hazing

If you are struggling and need to speak with someone in person, please reach out to Velina Bogart, Coordinator of Student Wellness, at vbogart@edisonohio.edu, 937-778-7854, Room 193 (next door to the Security Office).

Walk in hours on campus are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, 8am-5pm. Hours may vary according to the college schedule or events.

If this is a medical emergency, please call 911. If this is a mental health emergency, please call 988.

Please note that the Charger Station Food Pantry has been relocated to Room 060 (next to the cafeteria).

LIBRARY SERVICES

The Edison State library is not only a comfortable place to study, we have an expansive collection of online resources available to help you with your research. Check out the library webpage here:
