

VET 285S Small Animal Nursing Clinical

Course Goals:

1. Demonstrate competency with multiple hands-on skills covered in previous classes to meet the CVTEA Veterinary Technology Student Essential and Recommended Skills List.
2. Assess and grow their hands-on, client communication, and knowledge-based skills for both their future career as a registered veterinary technician and their testing with the Veterinary Technician National Examination.
3. Apply the previously taught material in various roles and tasks legally applicable to the position of a registered veterinary technician.

Evaluation MethodsWeighted Grade Scale:

- Attendance – 15%
- Weekly Check-in Journals – 15%
- Evaluations – 20%
- Completion of skills – 50%

Attendance: A minimum of 160 hours is required to be completed in this course. One point will be awarded for attendance, marking a student as present. These points cannot be made up under any circumstances. Tardiness or absences will not only affect your attendance grade but may also result in missing required skills, leading to failing VET 285S and withdrawal from the Vet Tech Program. If an absence is found to be due to a documented extenuating circumstance, an effort to make up the hours (not the points) will be allowed but will require the approval of both the Clinical Supervisor and the Program Director.

Weekly Check-in Journals: Weekly entries of your experience will be required to be completed at each site. This assignment is to encourage self-reflection on your progress and areas that need improvement and open communication with each site's Clinical Supervisor. These will be graded on professionalism and completing the required dialogue. Each weekly journal entry is worth 50 points.

Evaluations: An evaluation regarding your progression in hands-on and soft skills (including professionalism) will be completed halfway through the 16-week semester, as well as at the end of the semester. Each evaluation is worth 100 points. Professionalism, especially regarding communication with the clinical site and potential clients, is essential. Any behavior brought to the attention of the Clinical Supervisor or Program Director that is deemed by the Clinical Supervisor to be considered poor conduct or lack of professionalism can result in a student's removal from the clinical site. This will, most likely, result in a failing grade in VET 285S and the withdrawal from the Vet Tech program.

Completion of Skills: The complete list of hands-on skills that will need to be completed by the completion of VET 285S is listed below under AVMA CVTEA Essential Skills. Remaining skills to be completed after the first 8 weeks will be evaluated by the Clinical Supervisor and Program Director. One point will be awarded for this check, solely marking its completion. Once all the skills have been completed and approved by the Clinical Supervisor and Program Director, a score of 100 points will be entered in the grade book. The combined score is worth 50% of your overall VET 285S grade. If all skills are not completed, this will lead to a failing grade for the course and potential withdrawal from the Vet Tech Program.

- Each student must keep track of the skills they have competently completed and immediately voice when there is a concern regarding progression to completion. If a student feels that they are falling behind or need additional outside training to ensure proper progression, please reach out to the Program Director immediately.
- Both the use of soft skills, including communication skills and overall professionalism, and additional hands-on skills will be utilized. This can include but is not limited to record keeping/filing, radiographs, laboratory procedures, client interaction, sanitation procedures, nursing skills, and pharmacy procedures.
- Students are only able to enroll in VET-291L and VET-291R once all required program skills are completed. This includes all hands-on skills in VET-285S, as well as any hands-on skill requirement in all past and present Vet Tech courses. Any canine or feline nursing skills not completed before the fourth semester of the Veterinary Technology program should be brought to the Program Director's attention and may be completed at a clinical site upon approval of the Clinical Supervisor.

POLICY STATEMENTS

Students in the Veterinary Technology program must obtain a “C” or higher in all veterinary technology courses..

Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher through the entirety of the program.

Students must achieve an exam average of 75% or higher in each VET course to remain in the program.

AVMA CVTEA Essential Skills: The majority of courses in the Veterinary Technology Program have either knowledge-based and/or hands-on skills in which each student must be deemed competent. All knowledge-based skills are covered under our Assessments policy (occasionally found in the Projects category), stated above. Hands-on skills scheduled in this class are listed below. If a skill is scheduled during the course, attendance is mandatory. Missing even just one hands-on AVMA CVTEA Essential Skill can result in an overall failing course grade and/or taking a class that has this course as a prerequisite. A comprehensive list is available at:

<https://www.avma.org/ProfessionalDevelopment/Education/Accreditation/Programs/Pages/cvtea-pp-appendix-i.aspx>

Dress Code: Scheduled labs (includes any classroom time working with any animals or biological specimens), field trips where the student will be working with animals, and during clinic rotations and internship, VET students are required to meet a strict dress code. If the below dress code is not met, the student may be asked to leave until they are able to return in the proper attire. This could result in missing essential skill. See above policy regarding missed essential skills.

- ✓ Closed-toed shoes (sneakers or orthopedic clogs recommended or weatherproof boots recommended for large animal sites)
- ✓ Scrubs
 - Clean and neatly pressed, not faded, discolored or ripped, nor “see through”
 - Scrub pants must be of a length to cover the ankle but must not touch the floor to prevent contamination and promote infection control.
 - Long-sleeved scrub jacket or lab coat must be worn over scrubs when working with animals or animal specimens.
- ✓ Long hair will need to be pulled back and secured
- ✓ Fingernails
 - Should be kept short as possible for personal safety, hygiene, and dexterity
 - No acrylic nails permitted
 - If painted, freshly painted with no chips required. Clear or neutral colors recommended.
 - Exception: when assisting in surgery, no nail lacquer is permitted
- ✓ Minimal jewelry. Loose jewelry, such as hooped or dangling earrings, necklaces, and bracelets are prohibited. NOTE: Prior to participating in a surgical procedure, you may be asked to remove all jewelry.
- ✓ Avoid wearing strong perfume/cologne
- ✓ Avoid chewing gum
- ✓ Watch, with a second hand (may need to be removed depending on the procedure), a functional pen and a stethoscope should be readily available
- ✓ Clinic rotations and internships may have additional dress code requirements.

AI Restrictive Policy: Students cannot use AI tools such as ChatGPT on assignments in this course. All assignments should be prepared entirely by the student. Developing strong competencies in this area will prepare you for a competitive workplace. Therefore, AI-generated submissions are prohibited and will be treated as academic misconduct.

Cell Phones: Cell phone use is not permitted in class. A cell phone is not permitted to be carried on oneself during field trips, clinic rotations, or internships.

Communication: Announcements and emails are available through the blackboard system. Periodically check your ESCC email for class announcements. If there is an urgent message, announcements will be sent to all students via e-mail. Instructors usually check e-mail daily Monday through Friday. This is the easiest way to contact them with questions or problems. The instructor will get back to you within 24-48 hours. If they have not responded within 48 hours, please email them again.

Edison State Community College Academic Honesty: Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated in this course. Students who cheat or allow others to copy from their papers will receive a zero on the assignment in question. The ECC Academic Honesty Policy will be adhered to in this course. See the Student Handbook at <https://www.edisonohio.edu/Student-Resources/>
