Class Policies

Assignment Deadlines: Since all assignments are turned in through our Blackboard course, the deadline is 11:59pm Eastern on the due date. Late work will be accepted until December 12th.

Attendance: Let's be honest, you can't learn if you're not here in class, especially in this fast-paced online half-term. Attendance is triggered by the week. You do not need to be here every single day...but it couldn't hurt. Plus, I'm entertaining, so you won't want to miss out. However, I'm not a monster, if something comes up, let me know ASAP.

Submissions: As previously mentioned, all assignments are submitted through our Blackboard course room and MUST be in a .DOCX (Microsoft Word) format. The system will not accept a google doc file nor a PDF.

Classroom Behavior: Edison State Community College is committed to fostering a culture of open inquiry and intellectual diversity within the classroom. This course covers a range of topics and may include discussions about controversial issues, beliefs, or policies. Students are encouraged to express diverse perspectives and reach their own conclusions on these topics.

Testing Your Faith Act Policy: Edison State Community College is committed to providing an environment respectful of students' beliefs. Students are permitted to be absent for up to 3 days each semester based on their faith, religion, or spiritual belief system with no academic penalty. Students must complete the Testing Your Faith Act

Accommodations Form, (<https://www.edisonohio.edu/services-support/registration-records>), located in “Forms” and provide a copy to their individual faculty within 14 days from the start of the course. The entire policy can be found in the student handbook at <https://www.edisonohio.edu/services-support/student-resources>

Academic Dishonesty: The University Rules, including the Student Code of Conduct, and other documented policies of the department, college, and university related to academic integrity will be enforced. Any violation of these regulations, including acts of plagiarism or cheating, will be dealt with on an individual basis according to the severity of the misconduct. Use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) to produce or help content, when an assignment does not explicitly call or allow for it without proper attribution or authorization, is plagiarism. All essay drafts will be checked using the TurnItIn function enabled on Canvas. Most source use issues are unintentional so we will primarily use the Turn-It-In reports for your drafts as a starting point for conversations and further instruction should they reveal any source-use issues. But if you include a substantial amount of plagiarized material in your assignments, you will likely receive a 0 for the assignment until you can revise the work to fully resolve those source-use issues.

AI Usage: We will embrace the responsible use of AI as a learning tool while maintaining academic integrity. For each assignment, I will clearly specify the allowed level of AI usage, ranging from no AI use to full AI collaboration. When AI is used, you must always cite this assistance, provide links to AI interactions, and include your original work. You are expected to follow these guidelines and be prepared to discuss and evaluate AI contributions. This policy will help you learn digital, proper citation practices, and critical thinking while you develop essential writing and analytical skills. Remember, the goal is for everyone to learn and grow in their abilities.

Technical Support

For Blackboard Assignment issues, the Instructor should be the first point of contact

For Log-in or other technology issues:

There are several steps you can follow if you have issues logging in to Blackboard or Office.

During business hours:
