Assignment Overview

Below is a summary of the major assignment types:

- Chapter Homework
Practice-driven assignments based on textbook readings. These are designed to reinforce foundational knowledge through problem-solving, budget planning, and scenario analysis.
- Chapter Quizzes
Short assessments administered in Blackboard that test comprehension of terminology, concepts, and application of financial principles covered in each chapter.
- Midterm & Final Exams
Two comprehensive evaluations focused on applying personal finance strategies.
- Discussion Boards
Engagement activities where students collaborate, introduce themselves, and reflect on project outcomes throughout the course while interacting with peers. Helps foster an online community.
- Scavenger Hunts
Applied learning activities that guide students to explore financial resources, calculators, and tools (e.g. mortgage calculators, insurance quote sites, tax estimators) used in real-life planning.
- Coffee Game Simulation
An interactive budgeting challenge focused on daily spending decisions. Students track costs (utilizing Microsoft Excel), assess opportunity cost, and build awareness of lifestyle expenses.
- Finances 101 Game
A digital financial literacy simulation that teaches risk/reward tradeoffs, smart spending, and goal setting in a dynamic, game-based format.
- Stock Market Project
A multi-week assignment where students monitor stock performance, document portfolio decisions utilizing Microsoft Excel, and reflect on the basics of investing strategy and market behavior.

Student Expectations

- Read assigned chapters and complete all problems.
- Stay active in the course and access support materials in Blackboard.
- Communicate promptly with your instructor about questions, challenges or if you anticipate missing deadlines.
- Students are expected to adhere to the deadlines as posted in the class schedule.
- Follow Edison State's Academic Honesty Policy.

Ethical Use of AI

AI tools may support learning—such as brainstorming, revising reflections, or formatting—but must not replace your own effort.

- All graded work (quizzes, discussion boards, practice sets, etc.) must reflect your understanding.
- Submitting AI-generated work without meaningful personal input violates academic integrity & earns a zero.
- Use AI as a guide, not a substitute. Integrity matters.

Notes:

- The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time.
- Refer to your class schedule for assignments and due dates.
- See Syllabus Part II Addendum for additional student support services.

Syllabus Part II Addendum for additional student support services.

AI POLICY - All coursework for this class must be authored solely by you. While limited use of generative AI tools like ChatGPT is permitted for brainstorming, outlining ideas, or checking grammar and style, AI-generated submissions—including drafts, full sentences, paragraphs, or entire assignments—are strictly prohibited and will be treated as academic misconduct. Any approved AI assistance must be properly documented and cited, in alignment with the college's academic honesty policies. If you're unsure about permitted usage, please ask for clarification before proceeding

ACCOMMODATIONS /ACCESSIBILITY AND DISABILITY SUPPORT SERVICES POLICY

Edison State Community College will make reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities. If you believe you may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability, contact the instructor privately with your self-identification letter. If you do not have a self-identification letter, contact Accessibility and Disability Support Services by emailing accessibilitysupport@edisonohio.edu or by calling 937.381.1548. Accessibility and Disability Support Services is located on the Piqua Campus in Room 160. For additional information, visit <https://www.edisonohio.edu/services-support/accessibility-disability-support-services>

TESTING YOUR FAITH ACT POLICY - Edison State Community College is committed to providing an environment respectful of students' beliefs. Students are permitted to be absent for up to 3 days each semester based on their faith, religion, or spiritual belief system with no academic penalty. Students must complete the Testing Your Faith Act Accommodations Form, <https://www.edisonohio.edu/services-support/registration-records>, located in "Forms" and provide a copy to their individual faculty within 14 days from the start of the course. The entire policy can be found in the student handbook at <https://www.edisonohio.edu/services-support/student-resources>.

TITLE IX STATEMENT - Anti-Discrimination, Harassment and Bullying

It is the policy of the College to maintain a learning environment free from bullying, discrimination, sexual harassment or sexual violence. Title IX federal law protects students, employees and third parties with a relationship to the college. All Edison State Community College employees are required to report all knowledge of incidents that violate the Title IX policy to the Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator immediately. Student and employee confidential consultation is available through the Coordinator of Health and Wellness Services. Title IX Policy and procedure language as well as contact information for the Coordinator of Health and Wellness, Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Title IX Coordinator can be found at www.edisonohio.edu/TitleIX/.
