Student Expectations

- Read assigned chapters and complete all assignments.
- Stay active in the course and access support materials in Blackboard.
- Communicate promptly with your instructor about questions or challenges or if you anticipate missing deadlines.
- Students are expected to adhere to the deadlines as posted in the class schedule.
- Follow Edison State's Academic Honesty Policy.

Ethical Use of AI

AI tools may support learning—such as brainstorming, revising reflections, or formatting—but must not replace your own effort.

- All graded work (quizzes, discussion boards, practice sets, etc.) must reflect your understanding.
- Submitting AI-generated work without meaningful personal input violates academic integrity and earns a zero.
- Use AI as a guide, not a substitute. Integrity matters.

Flexibility & Accessibility

- Students may attend any face-to-face section (day or evening) to reinforce learning. All sections follow identical schedules and content.

Notes:

- The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time.
- Refer to your class schedule for assignments and due dates.
- See Syllabus Part II Addendum for additional student support services.

Syllabus Part II Addendum for additional student support services.

AI POLICY - All coursework for this class must be authored solely by you. While limited use of generative AI tools like ChatGPT is permitted for brainstorming, outlining ideas, or checking grammar and style, AI-generated submissions—including drafts, full sentences, paragraphs, or entire assignments—are strictly prohibited and will be treated as academic misconduct. Any approved AI assistance must be properly documented and cited, in alignment with the college's academic honesty policies. If you're unsure about permitted usage, please ask for clarification before proceeding
