

ALUMNI EXPERIENCE SERIES

Lauren Kilburn

POLICE OFFICER, JACKSON CENTER POLICE DEPARTMENT

MAY 2, 2024 • 5:30PM
PIQUA CAMPUS • ROBINSON THEATER

Safety & Justice: The Role of Law Enforcement in Our Communities

Lauren Kilburn is a proud graduate of the Peace Officer Academy and a dedicated Police Officer serving the Village of Jackson Center. In addition to her commitment to law enforcement, Lauren is a devoted mother deeply invested in fostering a safer community for her child and all residents. Her passion extends beyond the streets, as she is continuing her education to pursue a cybersecurity degree at Edison State. With a keen eye for protecting both offline and online realms, Lauren exemplifies the importance of continuous learning and adaptation in the modern era of public safety.

5:30PM-6:00PM Discover how Edison State's Peace Officer Academy prepared Lauren for her career at the Jackson Center Police Department. Plus, engage with the Criminal Justice faculty to gain deeper insights into the program.

6:00PM-7:30PM Learn crucial self-defense techniques to enhance your safety. Also, join us in the new criminal justice classroom to experience demonstrations of our cutting-edge virtual reality system, made possible by The Piqua Community Foundation's Pitch Piqua Grant and The Edison Foundation.

Light refreshments will be served.
