For students with a disability, an expense allowance for special services, personal assistance, transportation, equipment, and supplies that are reasonably incurred but not provided by other agencies can be requested, per 2021-2022 FSA Handbook, Volume 3, Chapter 2, page 3-54. Disability-related expense allowance must be requested in writing. Students must meet with Edison's Disabilities Coordinator to initiate a request for this allowance.

Less-than-half-time Pell Student Cost of Attendance: 2021-2022 FSA Handbook, Volume 3, Chapter 2, page 3-55. For students who are less-than-half-time, the COA can include only: tuition and fees, books and supplies, transportation and dependent care, if applicable. Miscellaneous and personal expenses are not included.

New provision for Less-than-half-time Enrollment: Room and board for a limited duration. Schools have the option to include in the COA for a less-than-half-time student an allowance for room and board for up to three semesters (or equivalent), with no more than two of the semesters being consecutive at any one school.
