

You have indicated that you are interested in pursuing coursework at another institution and would like to be considered for financial aid under a consortium agreement arrangement. A consortium agreement is a binding agreement between eligible institutions which enables you to receive aid from Edison State Community College while taking courses from another (host) institution. In order for aid to be awarded for a consortium agreement, you must ensure that all the necessary forms are approved, completed and returned to the Edison State Community College Office of Financial Aid prior to the start of the consortium term.

IMPORTANT POINTS

1. Financial aid for consortium agreements is available ONLY from the Federal Direct Loan Program, the Federal Parent PLUS Loan program, and the Federal Pell Grant program.
2. Students interested in a consortium agreement must be currently enrolled in an eligible degree or certificate program and have completed at least one term at Edison State Community College.
3. The coursework at the host institution must be approved for your degree at Edison State Community College.
4. Students can only receive aid from one institution at a time.
5. Students are responsible to pay the host institution all tuition, fees, and other allowable charges by the published schedule.
6. Students must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress.
7. Edison State Community College reserves the right to deny any consortium agreement request and a host institution is not required to accept the terms of the consortium agreement.
