

The Office of Financial Aid uses a standard Cost of Attendance (COA) for all students based on estimated average cost of tuition and fees, books and supplies, room and board, transportation, personal expenses, and loan fees. The COA sets the limit on the maximum amount of financial aid a student may receive for the academic year.

For special circumstances, the Office of Financial Aid may use their professional judgment on a case-by-case basis to adjust a student's COA. A COA adjustment may increase a student's Federal Direct Loan eligibility, if the maximum annual eligibility has not been used, or it may increase a student's Federal Direct PLUS or private loan eligibility. Information you provide on this form allows the Office of Financial Aid to review and consider additional educational expenses incurred during your period of enrollment.

Please note the following:

- All expenses listed on this form must be supported by appropriate documentation. Expenses listed without supporting documentation will not be reviewed.
- A determination with respect to your appeal will be sent to you via Edison State email.
- Additional financial aid may or may not be offered.
