

NEW SHORT-TERM TECHNICAL CERTIFICATE GRANT APPLICATION

The NEW Short-Term Technical Certificate Grant is offered in partnership with Ohio Department of Higher Education to support students who exhibit financial need and are enrolled in programs that may be completed in less than one year that can lead to certification or industry-recognized credential in an in-demand job or career.

- ✓ This grant pays for tuition and fees only; books and supplies are not covered.
- ✓ This grant only pays for courses that are part of the approved short-term technical certificate program selected below.
- ✓ The grant will pay up to a maximum of $2,000 per program.
- ✓ The student can receive up to three awards (maximum $6,000 per lifetime) for different short-term certificates, but they must successfully complete one certificate before receiving another award for a new certificate.
- ✓ The student must stay continuously enrolled in the approved program for funding to continue term to term.
- ✓ The awarding of this grant is conditional upon the continuance of state funding.
- ✓ This grant can be awarded in conjunction with federal need-based financial aid, such as Pell grant or supplement grant. Therefore, submission of a current FAFSA is recommended but not required.

- If I am awarded this grant, I agree to abide by all the conditions of this grant. I understand that if I fail to attend my classes my grant disbursement will be removed from my account, and I may be required to pay any resulting balance due on my Edison State account.
- I understand that I must stay continuously enrolled for the awarded grant funds to be applied term by term.
- I understand that I must complete one short-term technical certificate program before I can apply for a new award for a new certificate program.
- I understand that should I submit a current year FAFSA that results in Pell grant eligibility, the Short-Term Technical Certificate Grant will apply toward my tuition and fees first; and any excess Pell grant can be used to purchase books for the short-term program classes.

I certify that, to the best of my knowledge and belief at the time and date I have signed below, all information listed on this application is true and accurate.
