Proficiency Exam Student Requirements

1. Complete the registration form (on reverse side)
2. Return this form to the Cashier's Office with payment.
 - a. Exams are $30 per credit hour.
3. Bring a picture ID on the day of testing. Some tests allow calculators. Check with the proctor if you are unsure.

Test Process

1. The Cashier's Office will forward your registration form showing payment received to the Academic Project Specialist (APS).
2. The APS will assign a proctor.
3. You will be contacted by the proctor via phone or Edison email to schedule an exam time.
 - a. Be sure to note the name and contact number for the proctor and location of the exam to be administered.
 - b. If you need to change your scheduled exam date or time, notify the proctor as soon as possible.
 - c. There are no refunds for missed exams.
4. If you receive a passing score, credits (no grades) will be posted to your transcript. In most cases, a passing score is 70% or higher.
 - a. Results will be posted to your transcript within two weeks. They may be viewed through your WebAdvisor account.

Reminders

- You may NOT take an exam for a class for which you are currently enrolled.
 - If you are enrolled in the course, you must drop the course in order to take the exam.
 - You may not enroll in a course you are testing out of after the semester has begun.
- Failed tests may not be repeated for at least one year.
- There are no refunds for failed tests.
- Due to Federal FERPA Law, results cannot be given over the phone.
